

GlobalSign Privacy Policy Statement

Version 1.3

IMPORTANT NOTICE: THIS COMMUNICATION DOES NOT SUBSTITUTE OR REPLACE THE GLOBALSIGN CERTIFICATION PRACTICE STATEMENT ON www.globalsign.net/repository.

Supporting the rights of subscribers, GlobalSign boosts its quality certification services with appropriate privacy commitments to protect GlobalSign's subscriber personal data from unwanted consequences.

Get more of your Certification Authority - Subscribe with GlobalSign, the leading worldwide Certification Authority. GlobalSign complies with the EU Directive and the Law of Belgium on Privacy. The European Union Directive establishes the most rigid legal framework in the world for your protection. GlobalSign's Privacy Policy and GlobalSign's CPS effectively extend this level of protection with unique additional assurances to users from anywhere in the world.

Know your rights. - Compliant with the EU rules on Privacy, you have rights established by law that GlobalSign fully observes. The GlobalSign assurances apply to the entire GlobalSign network and to information collected for issuing the whole range of GlobalSign products and services.

- We request your explicit consent for all the personal data you may submit. We collect no personal data unless you submit it.
- We use the data you submit only to identify you and subsequently offer our PKI products and services.
- You have the right to review your personal data that GlobalSign holds and check it for consistency.
- You have the right to correct data in the remote case that errors may be found in our records.
- If you are not happy with GlobalSign holding your data you may request GlobalSign to deactivate data making it unavailable.

As a Trust service provider GlobalSign offers through its Privacy statement enhanced protection extending your statutory rights.

- We do not monitor you while you visit our site or request information on our products and services.
- If you subscribe with GlobalSign we do not use your personal data to compile user profiles.
- We avoid using cookies on your computer to keep track of you.
- Your business is not our business. We do not collect any data that you the subscriber of our products or services do not release or authorize us to have.
- No credit card information that you submit is used for any purposes other than payment of fees due.
- No data that you submit is for sale. We are not in the business of selling your personal data.
- We extend this commitment to qualifying applicants from anywhere in the world.
- At no extra cost. This high level of protection of personal data comes at no cost for you.
- This Privacy Policy does not affect any other applicable statutory rights you may have.